A MESSAGE FROM BEN

Dear Constituents,

I am honoured by the privilege of getting to represent you once again in Parliament.

It has been a busy first few weeks back, which have included a visit from King Charles III, the introduction of important legislation around removing trade barriers, incentivizing national development projects, and new personal responsibilities.

I am pleased to let you know that I have been elected as the Chair of the Prairie and North Caucus for the Government. This regional group consists of 11 MPs total from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, Yukon and the Northwest Territories. As Chair, my job will include facilitating meetings with those MPs, and reporting directly back to the Prime Minister weekly to advance the interests of our region.

Our country is facing its most significant challenges in generations. The Federal Government is poised to act quickly, with a focus on diversifying our trade, scaling up domestic industries, partnering with Municipalities and Provinces, and continuing to advance Truth and Reconciliation, all while leveraging Canadian supply chains and materials to accomplish our objectives.

With 6 Government MPs from Manitoba, there will be a heavy emphasis on the issues that matter to Winnipeg South Centre, and I am grateful for the ability to advocate regularly and directly for us with the Prime Minister, Cabinet, and our entire Government Caucus.

STAYING CONNECTED

Over the past two years as your MP, I have recorded “weekly updates” which are posted on my social media accounts and website. The purpose of these brief videos is to keep you informed about how my time is spent representing you, whether the week has found me in Ottawa or Winnipeg. I encourage you to take a look!

As always, my office is here to provide a wide-array of supports for you. During the last sitting of Parliament, your ideas, feedback, and insights were incredibly useful in helping me best advocate for our constituency. I encourage you to continue reaching out, and look forward to seeing many of you out in the community during the summer!

Sincerely,

ROYAL VISIT

At the start of every new Parliament (we are currently in the 45th since Confederation), there is a “Speech from the Throne” delivered by the Monarch or their representative, the Governor General, from the Senate. When King Charles III delivered the speech this year, it marked only the third time in Canadian history, and the first time since 1977, that the Monarch was present to read the address.

The speech itself is not written by the Monarch, but rather the Government. The purpose is to signal the broad direction of its agenda.

Ben meeting King Charles III following the Throne Speech.

The key elements of the speech delivered by the King were focused on the Government’s commitment to address the current crisis we face. We will meet the moment, in large part, by:

- Removing all Federal interprovincial trade barriers
- Rearming, Rebuilding, and Reinvesting in our Armed Forces
- Cutting the GST on new homes at or under $1 million for First-Time Homebuyers
- Strengthening our border with 1000 new RCMP personnel
- Introducing a Middle Class tax cut saving two income families up to $840/year
- Doubling the Indigenous Loan Guarantee Program to $10 Billion
- Working with Municipalities to cut development fees in half and expedite housing
- Creating a Major Federal Project Office to streamline national interests
- Protecting Canada’s nature through the creation of new national urban parks and conservation initiatives

As the King rightly said in the final paragraph of the speech, “the true North is indeed strong and free”, and as the Prime Minister continues to say, “we can give ourselves far more than anyone can take away.”

CANADA DAY

Canada Day is a celebration of everything that makes this country special—its people, breathtaking landscapes, and the spirit of community that brings us together.

This year, Canada Day is even more meaningful. Canadians from coast to coast will be celebrating this beautiful country and the values that make us unique.

I look forward to joining residents in Winnipeg South Centre on July 1st!
